Tri-Bullion Company Decides Feast Going On Among Red to Locate Plant in

Men of Many

HELP WANTED—If that is your crying need, a want ad in The Evening Citizen's want column will assure you of plenty of employes. Tribes. Colorado.

Several days since, Canon City, Colo., announced that the smeller of the Tri-Bullion Mining company would be built in that city, but it was believed here until late yesterday evening that Albuquerque might be selected as the point for the location of the plant. A telegram from P. F. McCanna, who has been in New York for several days looking after this city's interests with the officials of the Tri-Bullion company, was re-

ROBERT.

FLAKEY CRUST.

Readers, this is Robert, on the left. He is the hero. This, on the right, is Flakey Crust, the pirate—Readers, Robert. Readers, Flakey Crust. Robert and Flakey Crust, the Readers. Consider yourselves introduced.

Now, what is it all about? Oh, at is adventure on the sea, the kind that is full of breathless interest, interests so breathless interest, interest so breathless it can hardly keep from suffocating. It will be in 12 chapters, and will begin in The Chizen tomorrow, with a picture for each enhapter. If you like pirate gtories—and you do—you will enjoy this story. It is a surpassing story, surpassing like coffee; and a veracious one, veracious like a fish story. It is given to morrow, funny as a circus passing like a fish story, it is a surpassing story surpassing like a fish story. It is a funny story, funny as a circus passine.

BURIED WITH ALL MILITARY HONORS

Santa Fe, N. M., August 1 .- Th Santa Fe, N. M., August 1.—The funeral of the late William Bolander was held this afternoon followed by interment at the National cemetery. At 2:30 o'clock short services were conducted at the residence of Rev. J. W. Purcell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, after which the body was taken in charge of by an escort consisting of members of Carleton Post No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic, and Santa Fe Lodge No. 2, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Both organizations observed the customary burial rites at the the customary burial rites at the cemetery. As the casket was being lowered in the grave a salute was fired by a squad of Company F. First Infantry, New Mexico national guard, under command of First Sergeant J. H. McHughes.

ANNUAL CORN

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 1.—in the forty-seven Indian towns (class) of the Creek nation there are now being held the annual green corn dan The bootlegger is busy and the dian, after he has danced, will green corn for the first time this year.

An Indian will not eat roasting ears until after the green corn dance. This is an old superstitions custom, rigidly observed among the full-bloods. The custom is so old that it is impossible to get a clear idea as to its origin. The green corn dance are held about the same time in each are held about the same time in each town, although where there are insidian towns close together different dates are sometimes fixed so that the towns may attend each dance. There are from 50 to 100 indians at these dances, although when some big celebration is pulled off the number runs up to 500 or 600.

Indian Medicine.

The green corn dance is preceded by a busk held in June. Pais also is an annual town affair. At the June usk the Indians drink which is supposed to keep them free from disease until the next season. The drink is brewed from the root of a certain weed. It is brewed by the medicine man of each town and he keeps secret his medicine. While it is being boiled over a fire, While it is being boiled over a fire no man or dog is allowed to pass be tween the medicine man and the fire officials of the concern finally decided to erect the new smeller in close proximity to that plant in order to concentrate their interests.

The cost of the new plant will also be greatly reduced by building it in connection with the zinc reduction works. The latter plant was built in Colorado to fight the trust and after a stormy existence, its owners were glad to sell it for a very low price to the Tri-Buillon company. This was the point which determined the location of the smelter.

President Broks, of the Commercial club, stated today that the club has two other propositions for industries, either of which he considers of equal value with the smelter.

At these dances trouble occurs. and pork with it. Each Indian has a bowl and getting his portion sits on the ground. A dance will sometimes last three days. There is a feast each day and a dance each night following.

At these dances trouble occurs.

The Indians after this severe med-ical probation are in fine fettle Bootleggers always manage to get in Bootleggers always manage to get in a lot of "forty-rod" liquor and the fighting begins. Deputy marshals watch these stomp dances closely and they usually land several bootleggers. The more liquor there is the more fighting. If there are old scores in an Indian town they are usually set-tled at these places. The records of the federal jalls have already com-menced to show the progress of the green corn dances. green corn dances,

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

SLEEPLESSNESS.

Do you know what makes people lay awake and toss and roll about at night? Doctors tell you there are various causes. I tell you it's stomach trouble. I know it because I've seen thousands of cases and watched them.

A stomach that over-crowded with undigested, decaying food matter effects every or-MRS. GEO. WEISEL. gan of the human body. It causes nervousness, headaches, constipation, impure blood, poor circulation and dulls the mind. It makes one restless and uneasy. When your stomach is working right you feel right. You sleep well and you cat well. People come to me day after day and tell me they can't rest after eating. They have a dull headache. At night they go to bed simply because they are exhausted. They catch a few cat naps and get up in the morning feeling as worn out as they did before. I have recommended Cooper's New Discovery, a regular diet, regular habits and invariably these same people come to me afterwards and tell me they feel much better because they eat well and sleep well. Herewith is a sample.

A letter I received from Mrs. Geo. Weisel, 1121 Providence Road, Scranton, Pa., says:

"I suffered for three years from stomach trouble, inactive liver and rheuma-tism. Everything I ate disagreed with me and I lay awake night after night. I had no pleasure in life and could searcely do my work about the house. I heard from a neighbor of Cooper's New Discovery and I bought two bottles of it. It helped me right away. Now I have a good appetite and never suffer from indigestion. I sleep well and awake refreshed. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for what this medicine has done for me,"

The Cooper medicines have a larger sale than any medicine on the market .---Our customers speak highly of them.
